A Note from the Chair

The journey to where we are is rarely what we expected.

I've been with Anime Fusion since it was a conversation between three people in the wave pool at Valleyfair. We all had the destination in mind, but I doubt any of us could have envisioned the path that lay ahead. It was a road pitted with challenges: resource shortfalls, communication issues, staff changes, conflicting ideas and the sheer enormity of what we'd taken on. At its end we find ourselves in a place unlike what any of us imagined, but a place that is our own, a place we're excited to share with you.

This is Anime Fusion. A home for the best of what anime is today, but a place that also remembers its roots. Like the convention itself, anime has come a long way. In style, content, medium and structure, modern anime is very different from the classics, but without what came before, we wouldn't be where we are now. The past gives us our foundation and the building blocks of what's to come. Its high points leave us fond memories to treasure, and its rough spots teach us skills to improve.

So go forth into our world. Embrace the new, but value the road that brought you here.

General Information

Basic Rules

- > Don't break the hotel! Signs may only be posted using blue painter's tape.
- > Be kind to your fellow attendees. Keep the hallways clear, watch out for large props and trailing costumes, and ask permission before taking photos.
- > No sleeping in any convention spaces. No exceptions. If you need a place to sleep, there are plenty of hotel rooms available.
- > No real weapons! Live steel is not allowed anywhere in the hotel, even if peace-bonded. Prop guns must be clearly identifiable as props on sight (i.e. marked with orange tips).
- > Anime Fusion is an all-ages event. Please dress responsibly and keep language clean. Alcohol cannot be carried openly or brought into convention spaces.
- > If it's illegal outside the convention, it's illegal inside the convention.

Hotel

Ramada Mall of America

The reduced $99/night room rate will be honored all weekend, so even if you didn't make a reservation in advance, just stop by the front desk to get a discounted room!

The hotel has concessions available in the second-floor lobby from 10 AM to 10 PM each day. Or take the Ramada's free shuttle over to the Mall of America for a meal - it leaves from the front entrance every half hour, at :15 and :45.

Please be kind to our hosts by respecting the hotel's property and staff.

Saturday: 10 AM - 6 PM

Sunday: 10 AM - 4 PM

The Reactor Lounge

Miami Room

Friday: 10 AM - 1:30 AM

Saturday: 10 AM - 1:30 AM

Sunday: 10 AM - 6 PM

During the main hours of the convention, this is the best place to hang out! Bring games, art supplies, the new comics you just bought in the Dealer's Room - there's plenty of table space to go around.

The Reactor Lounge is where you'll find the Photoshoot Area. Check the schedule posted there to see what photoshoots are scheduled, or to sign up for any times that are still available. If there isn't a scheduled shoot going on, the photo area is open for anyone to use. Across from the photoshoot area is our Cosplay Repair Station. Ripped seam? Broken prop? They'll help you get fixed up fast!

The Lounge is also home to Ambassador's Row, where our visiting conventions have set up shop. Stop by the Miami Room to meet representatives from Sogen Con, Naka-Kon, WausaubiCon, and AniMinneapolis, and start thinking about which event you'll be heading to next!

Look for the Anime Fusion banner in the Reactor Lounge to find our merchandise table and the base of Volunteers. Running a convention is a huge job, and we need all the hands we can get to help! Got some idle time? Put in a few hours of light work and earn free prizes!

"Free Parking"

Room 257

Relax anytime in our 24-hour open lounge, located across from Operations. For those who like to keep the party going all night long, our Hospitality team will be providing rice, ramen, and beverages in this room from 9 PM to 4 AM both nights.

Other notable roles include League of Legends (Ezreal, Jarvan, Graves), Guild Wars 2 (Great Ginz, Ogron, Hamar), Fullmetal Alchemist (Vato Falman), Tales of Symphonia (Richter Abend) and Star Ocean (Dias, Arumat, Crow). Kyle also provides voices in numerous video games such as Sonic Colors DS, Final Fantasy XIII, World of Warcraft, Devil May Cry 4, Dynasty Warriors, Soul Calibur V and Resident Evil 5 and 6. Studio O.N.Y.

Founded in 2004, Studio O.N.Y. started out as a married couple doing Artist Alley tables at conventions in the Midwest. Richard and Shannon Townsend had worked as freelancers with several companies, most notably with A2 press on the Tabletop RPG Book Teenagers from Outer Space: The Landing. During their time as a small art studio, one young fan had asked them to turn their original characters into a weekly web comic. It was from this pleading that their weekly web comic Otaku -no- Yen (geeks without money) was born.

In early 2010, the studio brought on long time friend and artist Kimberly Pridemore as a collaborative member. Now that the studio has upgraded, the trio have begun work on a bold new comic project to be released in 2012, among other comics in the works from all members.

Guests of Honor

Ryan Reynolds

For more than a decade, anime has had a fan in Ryan Reynolds. Needless to say, when she got the opportunity to do some voice work at Funimation Entertainment it was like a dream come true for her. Ryan's big break came when she was given the chance to voice Latvia in a little show called Hetalia Axis Powers. Since then she has voiced such characters as Toto Sakigami in Deadman Wonderland, Amarty in the second season of Spice & Wolf, the younger version of Gray Fullbuster in Fairy Tail, Kazuya in Okamisan & Her Seven Companions, and Yoshiko Mikami in Baka & Test: Summon the Beasts. Along with voice acting, Ryan also works as a Graphic Designer for a very reputable ad agency in Dallas, TX and she recently earned a degree in Theater from Northwestern State University.

Daniel Mohr

Daniel "Stitch" Mohr is a native Minnesotan, who has been drawing for most of his life, and his Mom says he's great. In 2007 he debuted his first Web Comic, Everyday Gods which he writes as well as draws, and in 2009 he was drafted to design and draw the web comic World Wide News. Soon he will be releasing an ongoing physical comic book called Life is a Natural One, which will have a very Chibi like style to it. Daniel also designs tattoos, both permanent and temporary, he has created logos for businesses and personal use, Tarot decks, and spoofs on many different superheroes and characters from sci-fi and fantasy. In addition to his artwork, Daniel helps run "Mohr Creations" with his wife, and is also an actor with many stage credits to his name, including his work as a puppeteer, with the now famous or possibly infamous Wolfie B. Bad.

Matt McElroy

Matt McElroy is the Director of Marketing for DriveThruComics.com, where he works with publishers like Digital Manga (Vampire Hunter D), UDON (Makeshift Miracle), Top Cow Productions (Witchblade) and many more. DriveThruComics was the first ever digital comic shop and they continue to add new titles every day. He is also the owner of Flames Rising Press, which publishes horror and dark fantasy fiction and games, of which the award winning Haunted: 11 Tales of Ghostly Horror is their best known product. Matt also dabbles in RPG writing and design. He is currently working the Red List supplement for the Vampire: the Masquerade RPG.

Cosplay Contest

Finished your best costume? Perfected a hilarious skit? Show it off in the Masquerade!

Sign up at the Programming station in Operations anytime before noon on Saturday, until the contest is full. All participants are required to attend the stage orientation session at 4:00 PM on Saturday and the Masquerade show at 6:00 PM. A full set of contest rules is available in Operations.

There are three categories in the cosplay competition: Workmanship (costume quality), Performance (skits), and Exhibition (display only). Cosplayers can enter both Workmanship and Performance.

Workmanship

This category is for cosplayers who make their own costumes. Cosplayers can enter individually or as a group, with the awards given to the makers of the costumes.

There are two levels of competition:

Beginner: Those who have never won any awards in a costume contest

Advanced: Those who have won at least one award in a costume contest

Workmanship contestants will sign up for a Saturday pre-judging time for the judges to examine their costumes, and then participate in the Masquerade as walk-on entries. A walk-on entry is a simple minute to walk to the front of the stage, strike a few poses, and walk off the stage. Walk-ons may provide their own background audio but will not be permitted to use microphones onstage. If you want to speak onstage, please enter the Performance category as well.

All Workmanship contestants should bring printed reference material showing the character design their costume is based on, except in the case of original designs.

Performance

This category is for individuals or groups who want to perform a skit on stage. Awards will be given for best performance, regardless of the origin or workmanship of the costumes.

Skit performers will be permitted to use live microphones on stage, but skit content may not exceed a PG-13 rating. If you or any member of your group violates this policy, your audio will be cut and your group will immediately be disqualified from the contest.

Skit time limits start at 1 minute for a solo performance, with another 15 seconds added per additional person in the skit. The maximum time limit is 3 minutes regardless of the number of people in the group. If your skit exceeds your time limit, we will have to cut you off mid-performance, so plan carefully!

Exhibition

The Exhibition category is for cosplayers who want to show their costumes to the audience without competing for any awards. All Exhibition entries are walk-on entries (walk to the front of the stage, strike a few poses, walk off the stage).

Photoshoots

Following the Masquerade, the photoshoot area will be reserved for contest participants. All participants are encouraged to make use of this time to let admirers take pictures of their costumes.
