A Note from the Chair

<clearing of throat sound>

Hello! Welcome to the second annual Quad Cities Anime member appreciation event. Anime Fusion: Best of Both Worlds, the gathering for lovers of the classics and fanatics of the new. Some of you may remember last year's member appreciation event, A New Classic, and have decided to return. To those of you who are second year members I say, "Thank you very much." For those of you who are first year member curious, I say "This is your lucky weekend." Best of Both Worlds is Anime Fusion's way of bringing you the oldies and the goodies. Fans from long ago, say, circa 1950 on up to the latest devotee of last month. Anime is very diverse, as are the fans. Anime Fusion seeks to build a bridge between the generations and to celebrate all anime, manga, games and music from Japan. Anime is what brings us together and together we will celebrate anime. You never know what you've missed until your friends share it with you. So with that said, make friends and enjoy the fanaticism that brought you together. Two is better than one, and that's why there are box sets...

Josh Grelle

A native Texan and avid anime fan, Josh Grelle has been working in anime voice work for almost 10 years. After starting with ADV Films in January 2004, Josh was quickly bombarded with in-booth experience on a wide range of shows, including Wedding Peach, Steam Detectives, 009-1, and the legendary Gatchaman. He began working for FUNimation entertainment in 2006. Since then, he has starred in numerous titles; his most famous being Kenichi in Kenichi: The Mightiest Disciple. Other roles include Kyohei in the Wallflower, Kouichi in Linebarrels of Iron, Makoto in Ghost Hound, Itsuki in Initial D, and his personal favorite, Kuranosuke in Princess Jellyfish. Aside from anime, Josh has lent his voice to a number of video games, including Dynasty Warriors 7, Dragonball Z: Ultimate Tenkaichi, The Gunstringer, and Orcs Must Die!

Petrea Burchard

Petrea Burchard is known as the original English voice of Ryoko, the sexy space pirate in the animé classic, Tenchi Muyo! She is currently the radio and TV voice of Stater Brothers Markets in southern California. Burchard began her acting career in Chicago at The Second City, Steppenwolf and Victory Gardens Theaters, continuing on to Los Angeles to work in television, film, and voice-over. Auditions, jobs and the people she met (famous and infamous) became fodder for her popular "Act As If" humor column at NowCasting.com. Petrea also drew on her acting experience to write her first novel. During a summer Shakespeare course at Oxford she fell in love with the English countryside, and Camelot & Vine began to take shape. Other published works include a short story, "Portraits" in Literary Pasadena: The Fiction Edition, articles for Patch online newspapers, and an essay in A Cup of Comfort for Christmas, an Adams Media paperback.

Studio ONY

Studio ONY is the creative force behind the long running web comic Otaku -no- Yen. Studio ONY has spent a decade creating art, comics, and bringing their unique talents to different conventions across the country. In 2013, the studio is proud to present two new projects: Dirty Rice, a fun and risqué romp with some edgy rice balls, and Whip Angels, a supernatural comic about a heavenly flat track roller derby team.

Guests of Honor

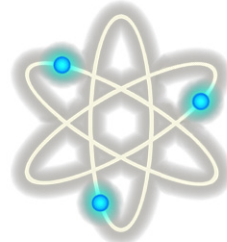

Taliesin Jaffe

Taliesin Jaffe started his career as a child actor. After a brief adventure living in Japan, he went on to work as an ADR director and script adaptor for animation and video games, and has been involved with the production of shows such as Hellsing, BECK, Romeo X Juliet, 3x3 Eyes, The End of Evangelion, Texhnolyze, Haibane Renmei, and Monster. He has also directed the English voiceover for many games including the Street Fighter IV series, Sengoku Basara, and Ultimate Marvel vs. Capcom 3. Taliesin has also worked as a voice actor, lending his voice to characters such as Blanka and Adon (Street Fighter IV), Darion Mograine, Admiral Ripsnarl and the Devourer of Souls (World of Warcraft), Edge (Final Fantasy IV), Junkers (Monster), Hatomura (Paranoia Agent), Mori Koji (I My Me! Strawberry Eggs), and Inui (Texhnolyze) to name just a few. Taliesin has won numerous awards for his efforts, and has just directed the dub for Hellsing Ultimate 5-8 and can soon be seen in the upcoming film The Viral Man and the web series Batgirl: Spoiled.

Samurai Dan and Jillian

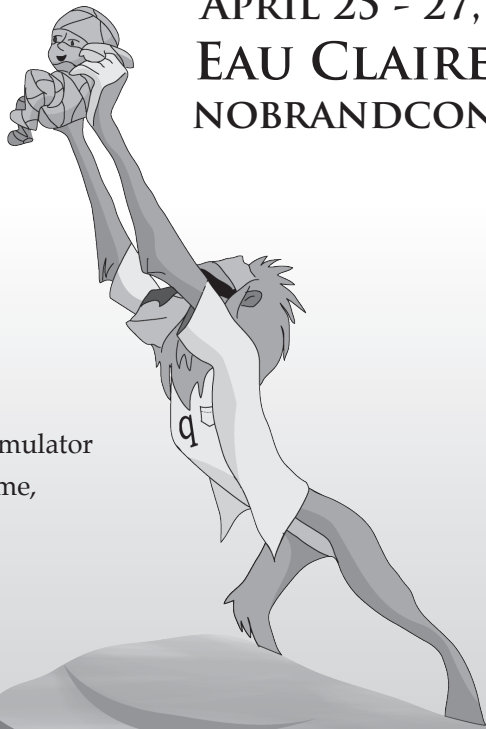

Dan Cogan, a.k.a. "Samurai Dan," and Jillian Cogan are a dynamic duo of stage performers and masters of martial mayhem that entertain audiences from one end of the country to the other. They specialize in showing the comedic side of shared Samurai training! In addition to their captivating stage shows, this happily (mostly!) married couple teach historical and hysterical panels on the way of the warrior, along with interactive classes for con-goers to learn and experience for themselves the amazing skills of the samurai (and ninja). Not content with mere physical attack and defense, Dan and Jillian unleash their verbal skills as well, attacking otaku funny bones with comedy panels and even uncensored (oops!) after hours offerings. When not onstage, Dan spends his time writing (look for his novels in a bookstore near you!) and Jillian enjoys spending time with their akitas.

Cosplay Contest

Finished your best costume? Perfected a hilarious skit? Show it off in the Masquerade!

Sign up at the Programming station in Operations anytime before 10:00 AM on Saturday, or until the contest is full. All participants are required to attend the stage orientation session at 2:00 PM on Saturday and the Masquerade show at 6:00 PM. To access the stage, cosplayers will need to pass through a small hallway and climb a few stairs, so please plan your costume accordingly. All costumes must adhere to the general cosplay rules of the convention. There can be NO LIVE STEEL or real weapons on stage! A full set of contest rules is available in Operations.

There are three categories in the cosplay competition: Craftsmanship (costume quality), Performance (skits), and Exhibition (display only). Cosplayers can enter both Craftsmanship and Performance.

Craftsmanship

This category is for cosplayers who make their own costumes. Cosplayers can enter individually or as a group, with the awards given to the people who made the costumes.

There are three levels of competition:

Beginner: Those who have never won any awards in a costume contest.

Journeyman: Those who have won at least one award in a costume contest.

Master: Those who have been competing at conventions for more than five years, or won a major award at a convention.

A costume contest is defined as any competition at a state level such as other conventions, or other large scale costume contests. If the judges believe your costume quality is above your entrant level it is their choice to move you up.

Craftsmanship entries will sign up for a Saturday pre-judging time to have their costumes examined, and then will participate in the Masquerade as walk-on or performance entries. A walk-on entry is a simple minute to walk to the front of the stage, strike a few poses, and walk off the stage. All Craftsmanship contestants MUST bring printed reference material showing the character design their costumes are based on.

Performance

This category is for individuals or groups who wish to perform a skit on stage. Skit performers must have pre-recorded audio and skit content may not exceed a PG-13 rating. If you or any member of your group violates this policy, your audio will be cut and your group will immediately be disqualified from the competition.

Skits are limited to two minutes and thirty seconds, no exceptions. If your skit exceeds the time limit, we will have to cut you off mid-performance, so please plan carefully!

Exhibition

The Exhibition category is for cosplayers who want to show their costumes or a skit to the audience without competing for any awards. Skits must skill have pre-recorded audio and must follow the PG-13 guidelines.

Photoshoots

Following the Masquerade, the photoshoot area will be reserved for contest participants. All participants are encouraged to make use of this time to let admirers take pictures of their costumes.

Anime Twin Cities is a non-profit corporation. Its purpose is to conduct educational, charitable and social activities related to the promotion and study of Japanese culture and language: Specifically animated movies and television programs known as anime, and graphic novels, known as manga.

Monthly activities

We hold an array of outings each month, as well as special annual events. Our range of activities varies widely; from volunteering for local charities, to attending sporting events and popular MN attractions. This September we went to Severs Corn Maze and visited Jims Apple Farm for an exciting "Candy/Corn" fall trip! Come see what we've got planned!

Planning meetings open to the public

Is there something you'd like to see that you think would benefit those in the community, or be a great idea for ATC to host? Come to one of our meetings!

We hold monthly meetings for our Social Outreach Services, which coordinates and plans most of our events, as well as our board meetings for Anime Twin Cities. If you're interested in joining staff or volunteering for our annual Anime Detour event, we also hold regular meetings, which you can find on AD's website.
