A NOTE FROM THE CHAIR

Thank you, thank you, thank you. Welcome to year three of Anime Fusion: Otaku Takeover. It is you the members of Quad Cities Anime that make this event possible. Because of your contribution of money and time we the staff can do what we do for your enjoyment. Be that in the panels, video rooms, table top gaming, video gaming or hanging out with friends in the Reactor Lounge and eating in Free Parking. Hospitality is a hard working dedicated machine of people providing members with the minimum fuel to continue enjoyment of this convention. We are always saying welcome to volunteers, and with some prizes as thank you for hours volunteered there is no reason not to volunteer as groups or singles. Without you, this would be a very empty hotel. Don't forget to sleep after dancing the night away, but don't sleep too long or you'll miss some of our fantastic early programming. With running water comes responsibility. Please be kind to one another and their noses. As we all celebrate what brings us together, we must also act together to make this the best Anime Fusion yet. Thank you and partake of Anime Fusion: Otaku Takeover!

Lost something? Got a question? Need help from staff? Operations is the convention's main office and headquarters of Programming, after-hours pre-registration pickup, and the all-important Lost & Found. Ops is open throughout the entire convention.

As you're wandering the halls, you can always get help or information from members of our Safety team.

VOLUNTEERS

MENOMINEE EAST

Friday: 10 AM - 1:30 AM

Saturday: 10 AM - 1:30 AM

Sunday: 10 AM - 5 PM

The Reactor Lounge is where you'll find the Photoshoot Area. Check the schedule posted there to see what photoshoots are scheduled, or to sign up for any times that are still available. If there isn't a scheduled shoot going on, the photo area is open for anyone to use. The Lounge is also home to Ambassador's Row, where our visiting conventions and other organizations have set up shop, and the hotel concessions station with a variety of food options for a reasonable price. Stop by the Menominee Room to grab something to eat and start thinking about which convention you'll be heading to next!

HOSPITALITY SUITE ROOM 257

Friday: 7 PM - 3 AM
Saturday: Noon - 3 AM
Sunday: Noon - 5 PM

Hospitality is where we serve our attendees FREE rice, ramen, and various thirst quenching beverages. Please keep in mind, these are only snacks.

- > Sleeping is not allowed in the Hospitality Suite.
- > Everybody is expected to pick up after themselves.
- > If something is spilled on the floor, alert a staff member immediately so it can be cleaned.
- > Any personal items left in Hospitality will be taken to Operations immediately, so always start your search there.
- > Snacks are only meant to tide you over until mealtime, so always make time for nutritious meals each day of the convention.

TABLETOP GAMING MAIN: ROOM 215 CCG CENTRAL: ROOM 301

Opens: Friday, 2 PM
Closes: Sunday, 3 PM

As in previous years, Tabletop Gaming runs 24-hours! This year CCG Central will switch to "Free To Play" overnight, meaning that after scheduled events are over, it will become an open space where people can congregate and organize their own games.

- > Please pick up trash from your area. We will make sure there are trash cans available for you. All we ask is that you help the trash get there!
- > Family-friendly gaming only. Anything 18+ is not allowed (i.e. Cards Against Humanity). Do we REALLY want to explain to a small Pikachu what some of those terms are?
- > Any young children must be accompanied by a parent or responsible adult at all times. Anyone with a youth badge (under 18+) is still welcome after 10 PM, but must be accompanied by an adult.
- > We welcome anyone to bring board games to share. Just let the staff know when you bring it in so we don't mistake it for one of our own.
- > Have fun! (Yes it IS a rule!)

Please make sure to give feedback to the convention about what you like, didn't like, and what you would like to see in the future. We try to make everyone happy, but there are SO MANY COOL GAMES that we can't anticipate all of your cool favorites!

MASQUERADE COSTUME CONTEST RULES AND PROCEDURES

All participants are required to attend the stage orientation session on Saturday and the Masquerade show.

Sign up for the contest in the upper lobby outside the Dealers Room. Sign-ups will close at 1:00 PM on Saturday or whenever the contest is full. To access the stage, cosplayers will need to pass through a small hallway and climb a few stairs, so please plan your costume accordingly. All costumes must adhere to the general cosplay rules of the convention. Any props or materials brought onstage during your performance MUST be brought offstage with you. Nothing can be left onstage. No glitter, confetti, liquids or other material that might make a mess may be used onstage.

There can be NO LIVE STEEL or real weapons on stage! Any prop guns must be obviously props (i.e. marked with an orange tip), cannot be pointed at the audience at any time, and fingers must remain off the trigger at all times. If desired you may ask Cosplay staff to remove any Safety markers (i.e. zip ties) from your props before you go on stage, but you are responsible for getting the markers replaced by staff before you re-enter the public areas of the convention. Any stage combat must be safe for all participants and convention property. All stage combat must be reviewed by con staff prior to competition.

There is no live microphone use or live speaking on stage. If you would like audio played during your performance, bring your audio burned to a CD. Make sure the CD contains only the sound you want used - we cannot edit your audio or start it at specific times! CDs may or may not be returned, so do not submit originals or valuable materials. The Masquerade is an all-ages event. All content must be appropriate for a PG-13 rating - no profanity or sexual content, no inflammatory or offensive material. If you are questioning whether or not your material fits within these guidelines please contact a member of cosplay staff. Other staff members may not know the correct answer. All questions regarding exceptions must be made before the end of orientation on Saturday afternoon. This orientation is mandatory.

There are three categories in the cosplay competition: Craftsmanship (costume quality), Performance (skits), and Exhibition (display only). Cosplayers can enter both Craftsmanship and Performance.

Craftsmanship

This category is for cosplayers who make their own costumes. Cosplayers can enter individually or as a group, with the awards given to the people who made the costumes. Craftsmanship entries will sign up for a Saturday pre-judging time to have their costumes examined, and then will participate in the Masquerade as walk-on or performance entries. All Craftsmanship contestants MUST bring printed reference material showing the character design their costumes are based on.

Performance

This category is for individuals or groups who wish to perform a skit on stage. Skit performers must have pre-recorded audio and skit content may not exceed a PG-13 rating. If you or any member of your group violates this policy, your audio will be cut and your group will immediately be disqualified from the competition. All skits must occur entirely on stage. Skits are limited to two minutes and thirty seconds. Please plan carefully!

Exhibition

The Exhibition category is for cosplayers who want to show their costumes or a skit to the audience without competing for any awards. Skits must still have pre-recorded audio and must follow the PG-13 guidelines.

Photoshoots

Following the Masquerade, the photoshoot area will be reserved for contest participants. All participants are encouraged to make use of this time to let admirers take pictures of their costumes.

ROBERT AXELROD

Robert Axelrod has carved a career in show business that runs the gamut. He did commercials and theater as a child and teen, then left acting for the world of music. He spent eight years playing electric bass and singing in folk, rock, and soul bands. Music brought him to Los Angeles where he decided to return to acting. Since then, Mr. Axelrod has appeared in over thirty feature films. Television appearances include guest star roles on Amazing Stories, Star Trek: Voyager, Tim And Eric's Awesome Show, and The Mighty Morphin Power Rangers. His performance in the short film The Goldfish is garnering rave reviews.

Mr. Axelrod is also a busy voice over artist. He is the voice of Lord Zedd and Finster on the Mighty Morphin Power Rangers. He voiced Armadillomon and Wizardmon on Digimon, Microchip, The Punisher's sidekick, on Spiderman, Rico on Robotech, and countless anime features including Akira, The Big O, and Cowboy Bebop. As Lord Zedd, he starred in both the first Power Rangers feature film and the wildly popular live show that toured the country. He just finished narrating the mockumentary Safety First: The Rise of Women and voicing four anime series, Gaiking, Danguard Ace, Captain Horlock, The Adventures of Nadja, and Fist of the North Star.

RYAN REYNOLDS

For more than a decade, anime has had a fan in Ryan Reynolds. Needless to say, when she got the opportunity to do some voice work at Funimation Entertainment it was like a dream come true for her.

Ryan's big break came when she was given the chance to voice Latvia in a little show called Hetalia – Axis Powers. Since then she has voiced such characters as Amarty in the second season of Spice & Wolf, the younger version of Gray Fullbuster in Fairy Tail, Ryuta Tsuwabuki in Good Luck Girl, Toto Sakigami in Deadman Wonderland, and Chikage Izumi in Aesthetica of a Rogue Hero.

When she's not voice acting, Ryan works as a graphic designer at an ad agency in Fort Worth, Texas.

SAMURAI DAN & JILLIAN

Dan Cogan, a.k.a. "Samurai Dan," and Jillian Cogan are a dynamic duo of stage performers and masters of martial mayhem that entertain audiences from one end of the country to the other. They specialize in showing the comedic side of shared Samurai training!

In addition to their captivating stage shows, this happily (mostly!) married couple teach historical and hysterical panels on the way of the warrior, along with interactive classes for con-goers to learn and experience for themselves the amazing skills of the samurai (and ninja).

Not content with mere physical attack and defense, Dan and Jillian unleash their verbal skills as well, attacking otaku funny bones with comedy panels and even uncensored (oops!) after hours offerings.

When not onstage, Dan spends his time writing (look for his novels in a bookstore near you!) and Jillian enjoys spending time with their akitas. Check them out on Facebook!

JAMES HATTON

James Hatton has been a staple in the stapleless world of webcomics for a decade at this point. His most famous creation is In His Likeness (inhislikeness.com), a comic that tells fractured versions of famous mythology using minimalistic dots.

Stationed in beautiful New Jersey (no, seriously, it's really quite nice), he can be found hosting comedy events, hosting burlesque shows, running his podcast The Something-something Cast (somethingcast.com) or watching horribly bad science fiction films, reading comics, playing video games, and snuggling with his cats and/or wife.

GUESTS OF HONOR

TIA BALLARD

Wow, Tia is cool! Tia is not awkward at all! Tia is letting you know that we write our own bios on here and it feels weird. Raised on generous helpings of Disney magic and video games, this Southern blonde goofball has provided the voice for Happy the Cat (Fairy Tail), Mizore Shirayuki (Rosario + Vampire), Megumi Shimizu (Shiki), Rea Sanka (Sankarea: Undying Love), Kusano (Sekirei), Porche the Foxy Pirate (One Piece), Xiao Mei (Fullmetal Alchemist: Brotherhood), Rin Ogata (Rideback), Hibana (Deadman Wonderland), Inaho (Maken-ki!), Eris (Cat Planet Cuties), Priscilla (Nintendo's Monster Tale), and a ton of other toons and video games!

"Tia is a good person and if you don't love her you're probably a jerk." -Tia's best friend

"So, Tia dresses up like Mickey Mouse or something at these conventions? I don't get it." -Tia's brother

"Tia is delicious!" -A cannibal

LISLE WILKERSON

Lisle Wilkerson grew up in Tokyo, Japan. She is the powerhouse behind some of the gaming industry's most popular female fighting characters, such as Nina Williams and Christie Monteiro, Sarah Bryant from Virtual Fighter, Shenmue II, just to name a few. She speaks fluent Japanese, and her voice work is done in both English and Japanese.

Lisle not only does video game voices, she also does the voice of Batz Maru (of Hello Kitty) and commercials for such internationally renown companies as Nissan, Panasonic, Sony, and United Inflight Radio. Lisle also had principal roles in the Academy Award winning Sofia Coppola film Lost In Translation, as well as the award winning indie film Kamataki.

In 2008 Lisle moved to the U.S. after living in Japan her whole life. After finding herself in various "culture shock" experiences, she started her blog Memoirs of a 6ft. Blond Geisha. Lisle currently lives in Los Angeles, where she continues to do voice work, as well as interpreting work. She is also a local media correspondent for Japan, covering everything from high-profile events like The Grammys, Academy Awards, Emmys and Golden Globes for both radio and television.

Lisle currently produces and hosts a weekly radio report for InterFM, and is the assistant producer of the upcoming film, Black Hat. And when Lisle isn't busy working or running around the country doing cons, you might find her in her pink boxing gloves trying to save the world Nina Williams-style or spending her time at home with her adorable jet-setting "bilingual" cat, Princess Genki.
